[Docket No. 95]

16 More than two months ago, the Court held a settlement conference at which the parties
17 reached a settlement. Docket No. 91. The Court required the filing of dismissal papers by October 18 31, 2019. Id. The parties thereafter filed a stipulation for an extension of time, seeking a lengthy 19 90-day extension without any showing why such a period was necessary to finalize the already-20 reached settlement. See Docket No. 93. Accordingly, the Court instead provided the parties with 21 an additional 30 days to file dismissal papers. Docket No. 94. The parties have now returned to 22 the Court by filing a status report, which is actually a stipulation for a further 45-day extension.
23 Docket No. 95.<sup>1</sup> No reasonable showing has been made as to why more than three months is 24 needed since a settlement was reached at the settlement conference to file dismissal papers. More 25 specifically to this request, no reasonable showing has been made as to why another 45 days is

27 <sup>1</sup> A status report is not a vehicle for seeking relief. If the parties all agree to relief requested
28 from the Court, then they must file a stipulation that is properly docketed as such. See Local Rule 7-1; see also Local Rule IC 2-2(b). The parties are expected in the future to use the correct docketing event.

1 required to file dismissal papers. Instead, the stipulation alludes generally to the need to “obtain
2 all settlement agreement signatures and fulfill the settlement requirements.” Id. at 3. Such a bald 3 statement does not suffice for such a lengthy extension.

4 Accordingly, the stipulation to extend is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. The 5 deadline to file dismissal papers is extended to December 23, 2019. NO FURTHER 6 EXTENSIONS WILL BE GRANTED.

7 IT IS SO ORDERED.
